Venice 02 Nights

Venice is a city which is formed by the collection of 118 islands, it is located in Northern part of Italy, Situated on the Adriatic Sea, earliest Foundation date of Venice is not authentically known but it is assumed to be formed somewhere in 5th century BC, by small population of fishermen known as "Lagooners" had long lived on the islands of modern Venice, this city is unchanged for last hundreds of years, you can feel the stillness of time in the alleys. Venice was once a prosperous city that had total control over Mediterranean sea trade, armed with a strong navy, Venice is claimed as UNESCO Heritage port city and derives most of its income from tourism, it is visited by thousands of tourists every day. It is considered as one of the most charming destinations in the world.

Venice is famous for its gondolas, canals and historic architecture. While gondolas still ply the city's waterways; water buses also are now the preferred form of transport for getting from place to place. For exploring the inner part of Venice, the best method is to walk. It is a small island and a few hours walk in the alleys gives you the best picture of local life. Venice is full of wonders and impressive building structures. The total population of Venice is around 260000 of which; historic island of Venice resides by 60000 people, while mainland population of approx. 176000

Venice's architecture spans several centuries, from 12th-century Byzantine to 17th-century Baroque. The most famous structure in the city the immense Byzantine St Mark's Basilica, situated on the equally as grandiose St Mark's Square. Venice has no roads for vehicles or mechanical traffic, just canals, including the Grand Canal which is covers the most of the islands, the St Mark's Square acts as a meeting point for tourists and a venue for all public events and exhibitions. The Gothic Doge's Palace nearby is also a hotspot for tourists, connected to the prison next door by the famous Bridge of Sighs. It is the world's only pedestrian city

If you travel by train from Rome to Venice, takes almost 4 hours. If you reach by plane at Marco Polo Airport, which is almost 14 km and takes 35 minutes by car and 50 minutes by boat, Venice is famous for its traditional Italian cuisine at road side restaurants.
