Istanbul 04 Nights

Istanbul, the only city which joins the continents of Europe and Asia; located on both sides of the Bosphorus, unite and penetrate the East and West on the terms of culture, art and custom, Halic Bay (Golden Horn) a horn-shaped bay located on the European side of Istanbul is one of the most beautiful natural harbors in the world.

It is Istanbul's endless offers of varieties that fascinate the visitors. The museums, churches, palaces, grand mosques, bazaars and sights of natural beauty seem innumerable. Reclining on the western shore of the Bosphorus at sunset contemplating the red evening light reflected in the windows of the opposite shore you may understand why so many centuries ago settlers chose to build on this remarkable site. The history of the city, which is known as the "Capital of the Empires", goes back to ages. The city was founded by the Megaras in A.D. 658 and was named Byzantium after their commander Byzas. It was developed very rapidly and turned into a large trade center, existed for hundreds of years as the capital of the Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman Empires.

Today it has become Turkey's most important tourism, trade and industrial city with a population over 15 million in 2019. The most beautiful historical assests of Istanbul are at the historical peninsula inside the city walls between the Marmara Sea and the Golden Horn. One could visit Istanbul for the shopping alone. The Kapali Carsi, or Covered Grand Bazaar, in the old city is the logical place to start with more than 4,000 shops. The Area called "Sultan Ahmet" which known for its Three glorious periods, Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman, has most of the famous and historical sights of Istanbul are located in this area. Topkopi museum A Must See, surprises you with the glimpse of history and culture treasure, Topkapi formed in 400 years old Palace of Ottoman, still astonish you with wonders of history

Baku 04 Nights / 05 Days

Baku is one of the most beautiful cities in the world; it is located at the Junction of Europe and Asia. It is the capital and the largest city of Azerbaijan, This city is renowned for its harsh winds, which is reflected in its name, Baku means the "City of Winds" or "City on the hill". It's also known as the large scientific, cultural and industrial center. Unlike other Oil fields, Baku city is well surrounded by Oil rigs

Baku is situated on the shore of the Caspian Sea in the south of the Absheron peninsula. It is located 28 meters (92 ft.) below sea level, which makes it the lowest lying national capital in the world and also the largest city in the world located below sea level. A large area and population of over 3.2 million people, that all make Baku one of the oldest and largest living cities in the region. Baku was one of the main cities in the era of King Shirvanshah's around 12th century. As Azerbaijan was part of Russia in Soviet Union it still has the marks of Soviet building structures and you can easily spot Russian Era's landmarks. Baku consists of 11 administrative districts and 5 townships. The old city is a maze of alleys, mosques, historic buildings and remnants of fortification, including the Palace of the Shirvanshahs and the Maiden Tower, now listed among UNESCO's World Heritage Sites. A curious fact about Baku is that its average year-round temperature (14.2°C/57.6°F) exactly matches the average temperature of the entire landmass of the earth, Summers are hot and humid, winters is cold, wet and breezy. There are a few very nice sandy beaches on the Caspian. In particular Bilgah and Amburan beaches on the north coast of the Absheron Peninsula are great spots. Baku being a safe & secure city has hosted many international events including 2015 European Games, 2016 Grand Prix, 4th Islamic Solidarity Games and Azerbaijan Grand Prix in 2017, and nominated to host UEFA Euro 2020.
