Rome

Rome is the capitol and the largest city of Italy with nearly 03 million residents, by area of Rome covers around 1285 km<sup>2</sup>. It is located in the central western part of Italy with the shores of famous river Tiber. There is an age old saying that Rome is founded by King Romulus in 08th Century BC thus Rome is always counted as one of most oldest alive city among the world living cities and it enjoys its existence for more 2500 years, it used to be the capitol of famous Roman Empire, in 1946 Rome was declared as capitol of present Italian republic. Many of Rome's monuments and historical places now declared as World Heritage by UNESCO including such as the Vatican Museums and the Colosseum. Rome ranked 14th most visited city in the world in 2014 and 3rd most visited in the European Union & the most popular tourist attraction among Italian cities.

The most interesting part of Rome's geographical value is that; the Vatican city which is also considered as a separate state or independent country geographically located within the city boundaries of Rome, the only present example that a country is located within a city boundaries. Because of existence of Vatican city, main religion of Rome is Roman Catholic. In recent years, there has been a significant growth in Rome's Muslim community, mainly due to immigration from Bangladesh, North African and Middle Eastern countries. Specially the area near Central Railway station "Termini" is well surrounded by Muslim community and Halal or Arab Food Outlets.

Rome's average temperature is above 20 °C during the day and 10 °C at night. In the coldest months like December January & February, the average temperature is 12 °C during the day and 3 °C at night. In the warmest months like Jun July and August, the average temperature is 30 °C during the day and 18 °C at night.

Rome offer countless tourist attractions including, Colosseum, Vatican City, Roman Forum, Trevi Fountain, Bridge of Angels and Spanish Steps, the good thing is most of monuments are situated at the walking distance from each other specially if you are familiar with city map and you are good at walking .... and Off course you get best Italian Pizza in Rome.
