Cappadocia 02 Nights

Cappadocia is almost 760 km from Istanbul and 540 km from Antalya. The word "Cappadocia" is meant as "Low Country" The area is widely pierced by volcanic peaks. Cappadocia is located in Central Anatolia Turkey and from ancient time it is famous for its historical and natural wonders, Fairy Chimneys, A Cone like formations created by soft volcanic ashes. The name Cappadocia is known to man history since 600 BC when it was considered as part old Persian Empire before that it was known as Hatti in the late Bronze Age. After ending the Persian Empire, Alexander the Great tried to rule the area through one of his military commanders. But "Ariarathes" a Persian aristocrat became king of the Cappadocians. After 11th Century With the rise of Turkish power in Anatolia, Cappadocia slowly became a tributary to the Turkish states that were established to the east and to the west; some of the population converted to Islam, rest remain at the Cappadocian & Greek beliefs till for long time and then converted to Islam

In Modern Era the area is a popular tourist destination, The region is located southwest of the major city Kayseri, which is the airport to approach this historical area.

The attractions in Cappadocia are Ürgüp, Goreme, Ihlara Valley, Selime, Guzelyurt, Uchisar, Avanos and Zelve. Among the underground cities worth seeing are Derinkuyu, Kaymakli, Gaziemir and Ozkanak. The best historic mansions and cave houses for tourist stays are in Urgup, Goreme, Guzelyurt and Uchisar. The rocks of Cappadocia near Göreme eroded into hundreds of spectacular pillars and minaret-like forms. People of the villages at the heart of the Cappadocia Region carved out houses, churches and monasteries from the soft rocks of volcanic deposits. The Göreme Open Air Museum is the most visited site contains more than 30 carved from rock churches and chapels, some having superb frescoes inside, from 9th – 11th century.

Cappadocia is almost 750 km from Istanbul and There are 8 – 10 flights daily from Istanbul to Cappadocia, takes 01hour & 20 minutes approx. If you prefer to travel by road your journey will be around +10 hours and comparatively low priced but more tiring.

Istanbul 04 Nights

Istanbul, the only city which joins the continents of Europe and Asia; located on both sides of the Bosphorus, unite and penetrate the East and West on the terms of culture, art and custom. Halic Bay (Golden Horn) a horn-shaped bay located on the European side of Istanbul is one of the most beautiful natural harbors in the world.

It is Istanbul's endless offers of varieties that fascinate the visitors. The museums, churches, palaces, grand mosques, bazaars and sights of natural beauty seem innumerable. Reclining on the western shore of the Bosphorus at sunset contemplating the red evening light reflected in the windows of the opposite shore you may understand why so many centuries ago settlers chose to build on this remarkable site. The history of the city, which is known as the "Capital of the Empires", goes back to ages. The city was founded by the Megaras in A.D. 658 and was named Byzantium after their commander Byzas. It was developed very rapidly and turned into a large trade center, existed for hundreds of years as the capital of the Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman Empires.

Today it has become Turkey's most important tourism, trade and industrial city with a population over 15 million in 2019. The most beautiful historical assests of Istanbul are at the historical peninsula inside the city walls between the Marmara Sea and the Golden Horn. One could visit Istanbul for the shopping alone. The Kapali Carsi, or Covered Grand Bazaar, in the old city is the logical place to start with more than 4,000 shops. The Area called "Sultan Ahmet" which known for its Three glorious periods, Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman, has most of the famous and historical sights of Istanbul are located in this area. Topkopi museum A Must See, surprises you with the glimpse of history and culture treasure, Topkapi formed in 400 years old Palace of Ottoman, still astonish you with wonders of history
