Istanbul 04 Nights

Istanbul, the only city which joins the continents of Europe and Asia; located on both sides of the Bosphorus, unite and penetrate the East and West on the terms of culture, art and custom, Halic Bay (Golden Horn) a horn-shaped bay located on the European side of Istanbul is one of the most beautiful natural harbors in the world.

It is Istanbul's endless offers of varieties that fascinate the visitors. The museums, churches, palaces, grand mosques, bazaars and sights of natural beauty seem innumerable. Reclining on the western shore of the Bosphorus at sunset contemplating the red evening light reflected in the windows of the opposite shore you may understand why so many centuries ago settlers chose to build on this remarkable site. The history of the city, which is known as the "Capital of the Empires", goes back to ages. The city was founded by the Megaras in A.D. 658 and was named Byzantium after their commander Byzas. It was developed very rapidly and turned into a large trade center, existed for hundreds of years as the capital of the Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman Empires.

Today it has become Turkey's most important tourism, trade and industrial city with a population over 15 million in 2019. The most beautiful historical assests of Istanbul are at the historical peninsula inside the city walls between the Marmara Sea and the Golden Horn. One could visit Istanbul for the shopping alone. The Kapali Carsi, or Covered Grand Bazaar, in the old city is the logical place to start with more than 4,000 shops. The Area called "Sultan Ahmet" which known for its Three glorious periods, Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman, has most of the famous and historical sights of Istanbul are located in this area. Topkopi museum A Must See, surprises you with the glimpse of history and culture treasure, Topkapi formed in 400 years old Palace of Ottoman, still astonish you with wonders of history

Beirut

Lebanon declared independence in 1943 and Beirut became the first capital of the country, Beirut is one of the oldest cities in the world which is still livable & populated. Beirut is the largest city with main Sea Port of Lebanon with approximately population 400000 in city limits and around 02 million habitants including suburbs, the city is located on a peninsula at the midpoint of Lebanon's Mediterranean coast at the foot of the Lebanon Mountains. Beirut has deep roots in history and the known history goes back to 5000 years, it was a proud part of many civilizations including Phoenician, Greeks, Romans, Arabs, and Ottomans. It's rich history still reflects in city's infrastructure. Several pre historical buildings were found under the buildings of new Beirut in recent era and were saved using the most ultra-techniques.

Beirut has been destroyed several times by earthquakes & natural disasters, faced great problems because of foreign rages and attacks by famous kings but after every such difficult time; Beirut rises up with more prosperity than before. In 1975 civil war broke out in Lebanon because of the presence of several foreign militant groups in Lebanon including PLO, Hizbollah, Syrian forces and Israeli Terrorist groups and for next 02 decades Beirut became one of the most dangerous city of region, with more than 60000 deaths in first 02 years of civil war. Since starting of new millennium things becoming better after the last Syrian troops left from Lebanon in 2005, Lebanon is reclaiming its tourist charm & position and getting tourist from all over the world, The city is considered a safe tourist spot again and chances of terrorism are minimal.
